"BOILING BLOOD"

Visit "BOILING BLOOD" on MotoLyrics.com

See you on the street , nasty pocket by side

My blood boilt in veins , should be your last purchase

Lust for pain , crave insane

Never ending search for the thrill that let me live

this day

Mental - never - healing - wound

Take a seat on my table

It was built for you

To spend the night, bleeding just for me !

Or is it a dream ?

Looking at your white skin - listing to your breath

Satisfaction for the next weeks - one last smiling for your saviour

Since I was a child - the torments were on my side

Now the wheel turns on - your blood is my revenge

Lust for pain , crave insane

this day
