So are you really gonna let it end this way
Some words on paper at the top i will write your name cos back in school i never thought of what i should say I'm left here wondering if i am the one to blame

I let you, let you get away
Now i'm crushed by the weight of my mistake

Oh o oh i hope you're happy now
I wanna tell you but i dont know how because i can't accept that i'm taking this too far (taking you much too far)

So i am leaving now for months i'll just drive all night finally awake the morning took too much time Just a clock, it kept up and so i fell behind and my heart says enough and so i close my eyes

I let you, let you get away
Now i'm crushed by the weight of my mistake

Oh o oh i hope you're happy now
I wanna tell you but i dont know how
because i can't accept that i'm taking this too far (taking you much too far)
I cant accept that your something that i just lost
I had my chance and its safe to say i messed it up Got my regrets and i never meant to loose touch with our eyes.

Oh o oh i hope you're happy now
I wanna tell you but i dont know how
because i can't accept that i'm taking this too far (taking you much too far)
I cant accept that your something that i just lost
I had my chance and its safe to say i messed it up Got my regrets and i never meant to loose touch with our eyes.
