Time may pass but you sure don't.
You might as well be the person you told me you were
from the beginning.
(You were a champ at making up a face.)
At least he'll play his part in the role I've always wanted,
When the curtain closes hopefully a lesson will be learned.

B-b-b-b-Breakin' down.
Tt-t-t-t-tTake your time.

Well this isn't yours and this isn't mine,
So is this where we both go senseless.

Time may pass but you sure don't.
You might as well be the person you told me you were
from the beginning.
(You were a champ at making up a face.)
At least he'll play his part in the role I've always wanted,
When the curtain closes hopefully a lesson will be
learned.

Well I guess I'm doing this for you.

The sky is on fire now who's the liar?
You can't fight this feeling if there wasn't on there.
(Don't think I didn't notice.)
So don't take this out on me don't make this seem like rivalry.
The sun will set just give it time.
This is the result of every line you have ever dropped,
And this is me not catching them as they fall.
