[Pete Rock]

Ugh here we go again, ugh my nigga Rell, Pete Rock 07, yeah sing it

[Chorus: Rell & Pete Rock adlibbing]

Well now that's what I'm talkin' about that's all I really need in my life Is your beautiful face & good music to take us through the night
well now that's what I'm talkin' about
So everybody put 'em up in the air & let the records play
so we can lose it somethin' up in here

[Pete Rock]

At the end of the show we gon' grab a bite to eat mad at your man its alright to cheat baby girl Lemme make you feel better rub your back your feet give a lil' cheddar when we get together Your worries go away, anything that you want I go & get today put it on my bill maybe Even my name people play a lot but it's not a game relationships the same & people interacting Got a little more attention when I started rapping she left me a voicemail & text Then she came right out & said she wanted some sex
I said boo my love is unconditional Kinda like Lauryn Hill's it's unintentional not a epic saga or a motion picture we gon party tonight
Because tomorrow I'll miss ya

[Chorus]

[Pete Rock]

Put your drink down & hit the dance floor the way these chicks look I wanna dance raw We could do it, until they turn the lights on we could do it, until they play the right song We could do it, 'till everybody's gone need a little time for us to be alone, seen the way you shake it

Now I wanna hear you moan, stop acting immature talkin' about you grown, when it's time to get it crackin' Just make sure you ready don't be acting all scary like you just seen Freddy, baby girl it won't hurt Like Biggie Smalls said "Miss what's under that skirt?"
It's a lotta pretty ladies that I seen on the daily Nice soap bubbles & cuter than Halle Berry I'm not here to ice grill or gun fight, just enjoy yourself & love life

Chorus

[ReII]

That's what I'm talking about That's what I'm talking about, me & you working it out Sippin' on drinks no doubt, that's what I'm talking about put 'em up in the sky, baby girls It's alright
We gone ride out tonight
