I will remake what your "god" have done I will remember the things you deny How he died on the cross I'll make him die again Foolish ones, do you believe in all his lies?
Stoned by mortals (means that) he can be stoned again nailed by those who knows whats right and wrong
I hail those who know...
Jesus christ, Jehovah and god I deny your strength Mortals rule this fucking earth
Tell me what sins I've done and I'll do them again I cannot fear what I dont see 1000 years you've fought against me without victory I will now declare war against you and I am going to win the hordes of darkness are with me
and the weak are with you they are brave, I can admit they fight for one they think died a thousand years ago...
I cant respect the weak!!!!
The war is now over I am sitting at your throne now we're going to burn this world and create a new,
recreate what you have destroyed Banned be your fucking trinity!
Banned be the holy laws banned be the holy fucking book
the only book is printed in blood!
Recreate!
