Magician at my birthday party
What does he see?
Three thousand cords plugged into me
Will the watch be important to the CIA
Looking for a metaphor that's hidden every day

It's a hologram world phony
You got it hand it your money
Hate calls on its own, its all fear
Another reason why just to let it blow

Turn on the radio
what do you hear?
You hear a man saying that the end is near Turn on the TV, millions in fear
Meteors are falling but the skies still clear

It's a hologram world phony
You got it hand it your money
Hate calls on its own, its all fear
Another reason why just to let it go

It's a hologram world phony
You got it hand it your money
Hate calls on its own, its all fear
Another reason why just to let it go
