Wait a minute, tell me where we are
I've been sipping for a minute and I'm sipping on it all But forgive me if I'm drunk cuz I'm bout to hit the bar once again
And I'm bout to bring all of my friends like

Bartender we gon drink it all
I am having fun, I left the bullshit in the fuckin car Alcohol's your friend cuz temporarily it will fix your scars
Countin all my shots because bout now I had like 6 in all
Damn, I swear to God, man I'm losing it Performing drunk - used to it
Man I'm feeling like a real bad influence
Imagine if they knew that I was into this Nah, I'd rather worry bout it later
Give em all a show, yea this worth more than they paid fo
Let em all know that it's them who I came for Hands in the air until I say so
Let's go

Okay, I'm acting for my town
Cuz you know I get it poppin, watch some hands go up and down
I'm in this bitch
They know that I'm fucked up in this club
Ladies love it when I'm performing drunk
And I'mma drink it all up til there's no more
And after I'm done girl, I'm drinkin more
I'mma do it
They know that I'm fucked up in this club
Ladies love it when I'm performing
I'm performing drunk
I'm performing drunk

And you know we ain't gotta wait in line
Tables filled up with them bottles and they finest wine
Fun is what we having and we having a good time I've been waiting since forever just to finally see this shot

And now I'm on, we gon get it poppin here tonight
Cuz tonight gon be the night that we celebratin life
Celebratin what is right and forgettin what is wrong It's okay that you forget me, don't you dare forget the song
Like damn, and everything we do is fuckin endless
I'm repping for my city, did I mention?
I'm headed to the entrance to see who's in attendance
I'm bout to put it on, can I please get your attention?
Yea

Okay, I'm acting for my town
Cuz you know I get it poppin, watch some hands go up
and down
I'm in this bitch
They know that I'm fucked up in this club
Ladies love it when I'm performing drunk
And I'mma drink it all up til there's no more
And after I'm done girl, I'm drinkin more
