Praying for a rainy day to stay in bed inside
Always looking for a way to medicate your life
Searching for a revelation
Avoid another confrontation
You struggle. You struggle
You struggle. You struggle

Standing on tomorrow at the end of yesterday
In between the sorrow and elation of today
Caught up in the black and white
Why do you put up such a damn good fight
You struggle you struggle
You struggle you struggle

Chorus:
Some day
One day
Some day
One day
No more worry
No more pain
Some day
One day

Everything is by design
God's perfect tapestry
There's nothing you or I could do to stop your destiny
Everyday I'm praying for you
That's the way I show I sure do love you
You struggle you struggle
You struggle you struggle

(Chorus)

Praying for a rainy day to stay in bed inside
