it was nice and everything was alright.
I heard another one written by Sheryl Crow
it was deep, dark, sarcastic with an e-bow.
I heard a rock written by Jakob Dylan
it was melancholic, blue and it makes me sad.
Oh Im so fucked up with that kind of songs
it always drops you down and let you hang.

Chorus:

Come with me to the deeper underground
the ghosts of them all never bring you down.
Free yourself of that old music tale
they gonna show you an own way to play
The musicians always stay at their roots
they dont develop, dont change their blues.
The only changing thing is theri attitude
enough money and you can see 'em nude.
Can anybody bring back the old kings?
The Doors, Elvis and Paul with his Wings.
Theyopened my eyes to see the important,
but today they only seem to forgotten.

Chorus (2x)

Bridge

I hear love song written by Michael Stipe
it was so nice and so alright.
The musicians always stay at their roots
and thats cool 'cos I like their blues.

Chorus (3x)
