"I've got my eye on the scar
That runs clear from your temple to your jawline
You will tell me about all your thoughts right this minute
And I will tell you mine
'Cos I got the wind in my hair
And I'm far away from where I used to be
But I got all my attention fixed on you
And you're flashing that smile at me
With the midwestern sky burning above us
We lean up against the car
I wanna tell you what the sky has done to me
I want you to tell me who we are
'Cos I can see you raising the water to your lips
It's the blazing dead center of July
And I got all my hopes hung on your one gorgeous promise
And you got the sunlight dancing on your eyes
And I got the wind in my hair
I'm far away from where I used to be
But I got all my attention fixed on you
And you're just where you said you'd be Just where you said you'd be"
