I drank your deep sea water
Kneeling at your shore.
Felt your changes in my body,
Came crawling back for more.

Screeching seagulls, moaning whales
Dare me to exist.
Do I enter Mother Ocean,
Do I dare resist?

I give up. I surrender to your charms.
Take me down into your depths
And let me drown in your arms.

CHORUS: Take me down
Take me down
Take me down
Take me down

Shape me, bend me to your will,
Only give me time
To learn to seek your will for me
And to ease your mind.

And I will do my best for you
Each moment that I'm able.
I only want to please you
As I lie here in your cradle.

CHORUS

Let the ocean waters wreak their
Darkness black as coal.

Drown the old me, make me over,
Claim my soul.

CHORUS (Repeat)
