The chances are you've had enough
The feelings come from giving up
We see you paring
everyday
The chances are on your
And the feelings alright
Were burning you Turn on turned on Hold on everything
Attach the cord to go Hard to let it go when its on Don't turn the key just yet Im getting tired now hard to stay awake when its on Cause everyday is second best

Watching more its such a mess
Further bent and further blown
And everyday blends with the last
Routine check-ups manifest
All my time in all my will

Take the time, for us to save mine Until its all, gone back and layed to rest

I lift away
Your over lovely and its nothing to me -x2 then why don't we stay then why don't we go My guess is cause Were sentimental You sit on the ice with no where to turn i can't help but think were gonna burn -x2

just play around your strung enough it does my job
you kiss my lips this sending its good to all its peace to watter you with the shark close the door

the kitchen knives
Are quiet now. my boddy numb

The chances are you've had enough
The feelings come from giving up
We see you paring
Everyday
Hold on everything
Hard to let it go when its so Everyday is second best

then why don't we stay then why don't we go my guess is cause were sentimental we sit on the ice with no where to turn
