"Van Song"

I've been led to believe
Been led to believe
We all can change
I have come to see
Have come to see
Everyone is tangled
Attached by strings that never stop
I ran myself into a knot
It's beautiful, it's beautiful, you know
Hung by a thread within the crowd
I want to know you but i don't know how
I am caught, i am tangled
God i'm tired of waking up, of waking up alone.
I've been led to believe
Been led to believe
We need our space
I have come to see
Have come to see
Everyone connected
How long can this keep up
Lost friends who never meant much
It's beautiful, it's beautiful, i know
God i'm tired of waking up, of waking up alone.
Lost the thread that leads me home.
I should have known we're tangled
Everyone is held together.
