Place your hands in mine
And dance away with me
But discover
You should know that I'm a dancer

Swing those hips around my way
Hear me when I say
Did you think that I'm the old romancer

As always I'll be moving as fast as I can do
Since it's me and since it's you
Baby baby
I only tell you once

Does it stand by now until the light shines through
But it won't be the same without you
Won't ever be the same
Take your time until you work it through
Take all the time you want to
Still a part of my game

Saw you walking right by me
From the corner of my eye
Knew somewhere that I have seen you
Just the same as always
Like dinosaurs that play
History will never teach you nothing

As always I'll be moving as fast as I can do
Since it's me and since it's you
Baby baby
I only tell you once

Does it stand by now as the light shines through
But it won't be the same without you
Won't never be the same
Take your time until you work it through
Take all the time you want to
