LYRICS: U. Balfe/D. Schoovaerts

This woman she knows

The story of heartbreak

Beneath the weight of day

She's seen the hate

On people's faces

Dark skin her only disgrace

She cries help me please

Lord help me please

Her children she taught them

How to be proud in the face

Of adversity

She gave them the love, respect and understanding

Showing them

The way to be free

Lord help her please

Lord help her please

Lord, please

She stands tall

High as a mountain

Her heart as deep as the sea

She's known hardship and sorrow

That brought her down on her knees

Lord help her please

Lord help her please

Lord help her please

Lord please
