Hush now little Sally
Baby
close your eyes sweet dreams honey hey don't you worry tonight He's yearning for the city be gonna for a while He won't be back until the morning it's gonna be one of those nights.

Sleep tight little Sally hey there's a sky full of stars shining for you honey hey one day you'll go that far Get to thinking maybe the wounds and the scars will wear off one day. It's just a matter of time.

On and on you wonder
if there's someone above
why doesn't he hear me
don't I pray hard enough?
On and on you wonder
if this madness will stop some ain't got it easy some got it rough.

Hush now little Sally

hey close your angel eyes.
A special lady hey will make the most of her life.
Your skirts may be shabby hey but girl with one of them smiles you'll lead an honest man astray and make him wanny cry.

Watch out little Sally hey the old man's messin' tonight.
They're yelling down the alley hey better turn on that porchlight.
Lost all of the money hey down by the quayside he's gambled all your dreams away all you've got left is your pride.

On and on you wonder
if there's someone above
why doesn't he hear me
don't I pray hard enough?
On and on you wonder
if this madness will stop
some ain't got it easy some got it rough.
