live your life like you want to. you know that you can do anything that you want to. just be respectful. oh, oh, open your heart, your mind, your ears, your eyes, and just live for happiness. just live for happiness. whatever you choose to do in life that's awesome just make sure that no one gets hurt by your actions. so just be thoughtful. oh, oh, open your heart, your mind, your ears, your eyes, and just live for happiness. just live for happiness. if you're ever feeling down just think a lot about what in this world pleases you the most. or go find a friend spill your guts out to them. tell them how you feel until your frown turns upside down! live your life like you want to. you know that you can do anything that you want to. just be respectful. oh, oh, open your heart, your mind, your ears, your eyes, and just live for happiness. just live for happiness. whatever you choose to do in life that's awesome just make sure that no one gets hurt by your actions. so just be thoughtful. oh, oh, open your heart, your mind, your ears, your eyes, and just live for happiness. just live for happiness.
