i wrote this song with dancing on my mind. i hope you don't just stand there. i hope everybody sings along. hey! cause if you don't i'll get embarrassed. i'll be up here by myself and every note i sing will be wrong. hey! don't let me catch you not dancing. i'll kill you. 1, 2, 3, 4. i've got your attention. now you better fucking listen cause the man you're looking at right now is buff. hey! i kill the people that don't keep it crunk cause they're really lame and because i'm really really tough. hey! don't let me catch you not clapping i'll kill you. 1, 2, 3, 4. if you're still alive it means you're doing good so keep it up, but if you're not you obviously suck. hey! so all of you that want to live to see tomorrow, don't be stupid. shake your booty til this song is over. hey! don't let me catch you not dancing. i'll kill you. don't let me catch you not dancing. i'll kill you. shake your booty or die!
