Where'd ya go?
The leaves, they move too fast.
I was lost, looking for your face.
Did you go to catch the lovers lie?
Or to move the stars and put them in place?
Is there ever a dream of mine, you haven't heard?
I'll keep running ahead of the race, until
I put that sparkle in your eye.
Did you know, when you move I breathe?
I'd take blind destiny over empty space
As my friends slowly fade into ghosts
I hold on tighter, struggle for demands
Is there ever a dream of mine
You (ohhh)haven't heard?
I'll keep running ahead of the race
Until I put a sparkle in your eye
(sparkle in your eyeeeee)
Is there ever a dream of mine you
(ohh) you haven't heard..
I'll keep running ahead of the race
Until I put a sparkle in your eye
