i wish i wouldn't sleep at night,
'cause then all sins come back, all i've done to you.
It's not enough to say "I'm sorry", but more except my love i couldn't give.
but my love is much more, than all things i know underneath ma heart i feel, that you doubt.

let you down in ma arm, let you down in my world and
i'll show you things consists of love.

Wer're riding on sunbeams, wer're eating feelings wer're all the air that they breath, wer're just in love... a month isn't enough for all the thing that we could do,
well a life is too short.
so please god give us an infinity to love each other softly...

let you down in my arms, let you down in my world and
i'll show you things consists of love.
let you down in my arms, let you down in my world and
i'll show you things consists of love.

'cause it's great to be with you.
'cause it's great to feel your hand.
'cause it's great to see your eyes.
'cause it's great to hold your soul.
'cause it's great to kiss your lips.
'cause it's great to touch your skin.
'cause it's greyt to say your name.
'cause it's great to be in love, it's great to love you...
