I remember her standing in the tall grass and cattails Away from the windows at the end of the day watching the men from the lading in the tall hats & coat-tails She'd never look different
But something would change

A mind with a heart of its own
Yeah a mind with a heart of its own

Well the man out to end us had a hurricane business He'd raise them from babies all by himself but his teen-age accountant had become surrounded he drank up the party and everyone left

A mind with a heart of its own
Yes a mind with a heart of its own

Well I been to Brooker and I been to Micanopy
I been to St. Louis too, I been all around the world
I've been over th your house
And you've been over sometimes to my house I've slept in your tree house my middle name is Earl

A mind with a heart of its own
A mind with a heart of its own
Yeah a mind with a heart of its own
