The nightmares flee to find the dark
A place where they can hide
Where no light flows on paths unknown
How I wish to be at their side
The dawn creeps in the lights still dim
The day will purify the world
The night and I have to die
As I'm the Black Butterfly
My destiny will be fulfilled
Now you've torn down the walls
Of my resistance and my will
I will not fly but fall
The time is here I'm pale with fear
The light brings my decay
My lids are burnt my bones have turned
To ashes, flesh to dust
No kiss upon my lips, not one
No last wish, no farewell
No saviour came to call my name
I'm going straight to hell
Fading away

Fading away

Utinam

Venias

Tu papilio niger

Fading away

Fading away

No kiss upon my lips, not one

No saviour came to call my name

Fading away

Nicht meine Schuld

Kann nichts dafar

Ich bin doch nur

Ein wildes Tier
