Now - You will be mine

this is my time to start a great incision

There - can only be the light or me

so make up your decision

Black Wings I spread wide open wipe off the cruel sun my pale face is the moon and let my children come

Sing child sing child

better join us sing child

sin child sin child

to make the darkness come

I - breathe in the light exhale the night kneel down and pledge allegiance

I - will let you burn and in return

I need your full obedience

My sweat will form the new stars

I stain the sky with white

My children dance and sing with joy and with delight

Sing child sing child ...
