She said, something 'bout this weather makes me feel it.

Can't waste another summer, I gotta get out. (I wanna get out)

Won't you help me get out? (I gotta get out)

And you lose yourself, to find who you are.
And your fight to breathe shouldn't be so hard
And you lose yourself, when you're all alone
So let the lights of Louisville carry you home.
Let the lights of Louisville carry you home.

She said, city's full of dreamers
I'm surrounded, a million other failures
I gotta get out, I wanna get out.
Won't you help me get out, I gotta get out.

And you lose yourself, to find who you are.
And your fight to breathe shouldn't be so hard
And you lose yourself, when you're all alone
So let the lights of Louisville carry you home.
Let the lights of Louisville carry you home.
Let the lights of Louisville carry you home.
Let the lights of Louisville carry you home.
