"Safe"

Your eyes are nothing i've looked deep knowing I was
and this memory will never be erased, never be erased You put me in my place, no more
I would have liked a call outside of you calling out my faults
I would have liked to settle this once and for all, once and for all
Would you have me crawl

And this memory, it will never fade
And this memory, it will never fade, fade
You can cry in this bed alone
I won't cry with you anymore
You can lay in this grave you made
I won't lie with you anymore

No it will never be erased Always put me in my place, no more
