Does she linger in the air that follows you home each day Do you ever stop and stare at yourself for traces of her
Can a picture bring some comfort
Where a song melody leaves off
Is she silently rocking you to sleep

Chorus:

'cause I hope and I pray
I'll see a bit of that light
In my world today
'cause it would be an injustice not to see that kind of love, live on

What kept your eyes up kept your world from falling Darkness chokes, but you found a way out May I say your words are insight Something unique
Hold on my friend she's rocking you out of here

'cause I hope and I pray
I'll see a bit of that light
In my world today
'cause it would be an injustice not to see
that kind of love, live on

We sing ahh ohh
and we sing ahh ohh
and we sing ahh ohh
and we sing ahh ohh

'cause I hope and I pray
I'll see a bit of that light
In my world today
(We sing ahh ohh)
'cause it would be an injustice not to see that kind of love, that kind of love
