We're taking chances
Moving on your own
We're looking to our hearts to tell us yes or no
Throwing out the mirrors
Gonna look within
Were you calling out, can we forgive again?
A simple fraise, a simple sound
To find someday, know somehow
To know that I can find a way to be with you

And we keep growing
As long as I keep growing
I'll be fine
I'll be fine

So let me find my footing now
Along the bridge that I have found
If I keep falling down somehow
You know that you can turn me around
(Around)

We're sneaking glances
Where eyes deceive
They're telling us we don't know the places we should be
A simple fraise, a simple sound
To find someday, know somehow
To know that I can find a way to be with you

And we keep growing
As long as I keep growing
I'll be fine
Well, I'll be fine
So let me find my footing now
Along the bridge that I have found
If I keep falling down somehow
You know that you can turn me around

Don't let me see you fall
Don't let me see you calling by name
The silly little names
And I'll telling you all

I'll tell you the hardest thing
The simple whispering
You said, I know you well

So let me find my footing now
Along the bridge that I have found
If I keep falling down somehow
You know that you can turn me around

And we look up, up
Look at the world
The world as it's sinking in
And we look up, up
I look at you
You turn me around again

If I keep falling down somehow
You know that you can turn me around
