"Trade This Fear"

Who is this darkness
Who is this illusive dreamer
Why do I love the way this distance feels it's coiled up independence

I want so much to run
Carry me over all this distance my dear
Trade this fear
Carry me over all

What part of my heart enters into your secrets
Where is the key to cherish you
I want to repay all the debt
Insecurities ran up
My peaceful surrender I do not own

I want so much to run
Carry me over all this distance my dear
Trade this fear
Carry me over all

Was I dreaming when I called you the loveliest
Was I only hoping my pride would quiet itself
Everything is quiet
Everything's so quiet

I want so much to run
Carry me over all this distance my dear
Trade this fear
Carry me over all

Call the guards call the authorities and lock this tension up
Call the guards before my heart, it runs away again
