Your eyes tonight are almost as blue as I feel inside
And you have no idea what you've done My hands are tingling now, maybe it's just because my heart has been broken, or maybe I can finally see

If you fight the good fight, then maybe I can finally see (I feel myself giving out) Yeah I'm fighting, but I'm losing
If you fight the good fight, then maybe I can finally see

It's just like the rest of me. It's inefficient and lacking things
This dejection is all I have to remember of her, as if I could forget. I can't fill my lungs

If you fight the good fight, I can't fill my lungs
(I feel myself giving out) Yeah I'm fighting, but I'm
If you fight the good fight, I can't fill my lungs
