"Tinfoil"

Smiling with wide eyes and little white lies tucked inside You're screaming you love me outside with crossed fingers behind
Just tell me how you wanted me to make you feel
'Cause I would try to make this real.
As real as this tinfoil heart you hold.

Just tell me how you want to live
Are we at least close
Anything you say
I'd take it right to the post
Just tell me how you wanted me to feel Cause I would try to make your tinfoil heart mine

If you're the liar now, then what am I to do?
Just stand beside you after all that we've been through?

(but you're all of me and I can't let go,
I don't regret a single word I spoke)
