"Friends In Rome"

Visit "Friends In Rome" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm ready to be
That one who's next to me
I'm ready to be free
And treat your needs
When will you fall
I won't burn
When will you call
I won't turn

I have these friends
They don't give all
They take it
And I starve

A sign in your face
Tells the world I'm near
You're smiling but it's fake
And the sense and the fear

Your minds are broken
With words unspoken
Your minds are broken
My heart's wide opened

Right through your door
Sun became low
You asked for more
I took it all
When will you fall
I won't burn
When will you call
I won't turn
