Rear your head up to the sky
Try to smile when everyone cries
I wont stand now by your side
It's time leave home and set you free
And the time for lonely me
I'm unclean and out of reach
Have you ever loved someone so much that you can't hate
It turns you in
It's out of faith
Every day I'll reach my shore
Every day I'll ask for more
It wont be now like before
Stars in daylight sun in the night
Rain falls from the dusty sky
Noone stands now by your side

I know how she feels on her way down
Cause I have recall
And I can recall
I know what she feels on her way down
It's still not the same
I aint got any mam
