He's a large and ugly giant monster, headless on my back

This urgent haste in my head
Materialized in this dark whole world
No one can help me there
I know this pain has gone too far
The fear is now so loud

Kill a child I'm trying to protect myself
Against your old controlled hate Pollution of mind filled all the space and destroyed my light
At least mine were never allowed

The hardest thing for me is
Facing the fear I live
No one can help me now it's under my heart

I'll come to know the living
My demons are inside
I'll bring them all to light

I wanted to hate, I wanted to die
I wanted to see you sacrifice
I had to deal with the fear you gave me
But you fucker never tried to help me
I was jealous and I was scared
Nobody ever replaced my pain
To say I'm not evil, to tell I'm not bad
Too late - I'm lost in human nature.

Leave me be
Set me free
Leave me be
Set me free

The hardest thing for me is
Facing the fear I live
No one can help me now it's under my heart

I'll come to know the living
My demons are inside

I'll bring them all to light

Unexpected yet expected,
Emerged from the dark I come to life
Take everything if you give my horse its head

You know me, your fear me, you know
The hardest thing for me is
Facing the fear I live
No one can help me now it's under my heart

I will come to know the living
My demons are inside
I'll bring them all to light
