I want to live in fire
With all the taste I desire
It's all good if you let me dive with some sharks on the ground

You lose your routine (3x)
'Cause I found my path

What the hell are you trying
(Now I know there's something more)
What happened to you?
(Still standing on my path)
Are you still denying
(Now I know there's something more)
That this is the truth?
It's all in you

What did you come for
What did you expect to find
What's your life for
What did you expect to find
What's your life for
What did you expect to find
What's your life for
What did you expect to find

So boundless I feel
And boundless all my fears
Stop running back to old times

You lose your routine
Cause I found my path

What the hell are you trying
(Now I know there's something more)
What happened to you?
(Still standing on my path)
Are you still denying
(Now I know there's something more)
That this is the truth?
It's all in you
