Visit "Path vol.2" on MotoLyrics.com

I want to live in fire
With all the tastes I desire...
It's all good if you let me dive
With some sharks under ground.

You lose your routine,
You lose your routine,
You lose your routine,
Cause I('ve) found my path.

What the hell are you trying? (now I know there's something more...)
What happened to you? (...still standing on my path...)
Are you still denying (...now I know there's something more...)
That this is the truth? (...It's all in you!)

What did you came for?
What did you expect to find?
What do you live for?
What did you expect to find?
What do you live for?
What did you expect to find?

So boundless I feel
And downless all my fears.
Stop running back to old times,
Stop running back to old times...

You lose your routine,
Cause I've found my path.

What the hell are you trying? (now I know there's something more...)
What happened to you? (...still standing on my path...)
Are you still denying (...now I know there's something more...)
That this is a truth? (...It's all in you!)
