I never thought until you came
That I would ever be the same
You gave me what I wanted
To be the man I should
You stood up there right next to me
And told me that I could
Please remember that I won't let you go
I will always, always let it show
You've been right here beside me
Through all the thick and thin
If I had the option
I'd do it all over again
Every time that you're around
I just drop to the ground
Folding up my hands
This is how it stands, today
Remember, all the times
That, I was happy
This was you
That made it true
How could I

Live without you
Every time that you're around
I just drop to the ground
Folding up my hands
This is how it stands, today
Here I come without a fear
And this time with no tear
Please don't let me go away
Not now or any other day
