The season has arrived when we dedicate our time to tell the Christmas story using art and dance and mime. We will not settle for less or offer up our second best; a spectacular extravaganza!

At our extravaganza the rules are very clear. What the judges will demand: make it bigger than last year. At our extravaganza we want to tell the story in the best way we can so Christ, Christ receives the glory.

I'm proud to say that my display will keep your toes a tappin'
We've managed to out do ourselves; can't wait for it to happen.
My display will glow, reflecting on the snow;
a spectacular extravaganza!

At our extravaganza the rules are very clear. What the judges will demand: make it bigger than last year. At our extravaganza we want to tell the story in the best way we can so Christ, Christ receives the glory.

One! Two! Three! Four! Five!

At our extravaganza the rules are very clear. What the judges will demand: make it bigger than last year. At our extravaganza we want to tell the story in the best way we can so Christ, Christ receives the glory.

Now on your mark, get ready for our Christmas extravaganza!
