How Now Easter Cow

Before the bunny show,
The legend here was told.
The first to hide the eggs
Was a long-horn with four legs.

Instead of hiding eggs
Behind the shrubs and lilacs,
He was always caught
Feeding his seven stomachs.

This critter had a hunger and so this is what he did:
He ate up all the grasses
where the goodies should be hid.
He tried to kick the habit and have something else to munch,
But the only patches working were the ones he had for lunch!

Chorus:

Oh - How now Easter Cow
Will you get off the grass?
How now Easter Cow
Do you eat grass so fast?
How now Easter Cow
Do you eat all there buds?
How wow bow wow meow Easter cow
Will you stop chewing cud?

His sidekick was a hare.
The bunny waited there for him to get his fill up.
He ate until he hiccupped.

By dawn's early light
You could see the lawn was gone.
Just when hope had dimmed,
The rabbit's plan was drawn.

He said "til you get help" I'll be the one who in charge here.

The Easter cow said "Bless you"
and he headed for some clover.
Easter changed forever when the rabbit hid the eggs,
But we still miss that bovine - two ears, one moo, four legs.

Repeat Chorus

Sing Along

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Your herbivorian tastes

Cost you your Easter place!

I am sorry if this hurts-You've got no bunny traits.

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Moo-Moo, Moo-Moo

Repeat Chorus
