What are you doing?
We are going to knock your wall down
By walking around in circles? Yes
Oh, that's a great idea, you go ahead and keep walking

Keep walking, but you won't knock down our wall
Keep walking, but she isn't gonna to fall!
It's plain to see your brains are very small
To think walking, will be knocking down our wall

You silly little pickle, you silly little bees
You think that walking round will bring this city to its knees?
The awesome power of this wall, we've clearly demonstrated
Ah, but out here in this hot hot sun, perhaps your dehydrated?
I pity them Philippe, ah, meh wee, Jean Claude, meh wee

Won't you join me in my irritating little song?
It would be an honor

Keep walking, but you won't knock down our wall
Keep walking, but she isn't gonna to fall!
It's plain to see, your brains are very small
To think walking, will be knocking down our wall

Keep walking, but you won't knock down our wall
Keep walking, but she isn't gonna to fall!
It's plain to see, your brains are very small
To think walking, will be knocking down our wall

It's plain to see that your brains are very small
To think walking, will be knocking down our wall
