Look, Olaf! There's a fish with a pretty yellow circle
At the bottom of the backside of his fin
Look, Olaf! There's another, and another, and another
And the little one has got a funny grin

Look, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf! Way down underneath the water
It's the biggest fish I think I've ever seen Look, Olaf! He's got purple spots and orange and yellow markings
And a dorsal fin that's iridescent green

Look, Olaf! There's a turtle and he's wearing pink pajamas
And he's got a cowboy hat upon his lid
Look, Olaf! Very close and see he's riding on a llama
And he's chasing down a herd of giant squid

Look Olaf, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf, Olaf!
There's a whale dancing with a bear
Look Olaf! It's a mermaid, it's an ostrich, it's a bunny Look Olaf! Please look anywhere but

I don't see anything

Ooh, I'm feelin' out of breath
Really, that song always gives me a happy feeling
Well, it gives me kind of an exhausted feeling
A, a-wait, scratch that, now I've got a funny feeling
You do, huh-huh, would you like to sing about it? Okay
