Love You

(Verse 1)

In my mind
I pine
For the love of you
That I want to be mine
Desperately wanting you
I cant stop
My spirit calls you
But my body acts nonchalant
So I try to hold back
And not want you so much
Hold to dreams
Of days when you touch
Love you subtly
I want you badly

(Bridge)

How do I tell you
Exactly what I feel
How do I put into words
What seems unreal
How do I show what I know
is impossible to see
I loose the words when your near me

(Chorus)

And I cant stop
And it wont stop
I hear music
in the backdrop
Your in everyone
Of my thoughts
Its true
And my cheeks turn
To a red rouse
speechless when I
Come around you
And my words I
Suddenly loose

Words like

I love you

I love you

(Verse 2)

Have you ever loved someone
And didn't know what to do
Cause once those word are said
Their not easy to undo Cause I don't want to be Rejected by you
In love
there's no easy book
that says how-to
And deep in my heart
I still to pursue
Hoping I wont need the button
named redo
Hoping you say
you feel the same way too

(Bridge)

How do I tell you
Exactly what I feel
How do I put into words
What seems unreal
How do I show what I know
is impossible to see
I loose the words when your near me

(Chorus)

And I cant stop
And it wont stop
I hear music
in the backdrop
Your in everyone
Of my thoughts
Its true
And my cheeks turn
To a red rouse
speechless when I
Come around you
And my words I
Suddenly loose
Words like
I love you

I love you

(Bridge)

And now at night
I don't want to dream
Because life's so much better in reality
And if you've ever been in love
I know you would agree
That the best thing in life is really free
It's called love

(Chorus)x2

And I can't stop
And it won't stop
I hear music
in the backdrop
You're in everyone
Of my thoughts
It's true
And my cheeks turn
To a red flush
speechless when I
Come around you
And my words I
Suddenly lose
Words like
I love you

I love you
