

Vehemence

"You Don't have To Be Afraid Anymore"

Visit "You Don't have To Be Afraid Anymore" on MotoLyrics.com

Little girl in my arms turned eight months three days ago
Prety green eyes that cried when I scolded her
Married thirteen years, I loved my wife and my job
Three perfect daughters I did not deserve
She took them away, said I had grown cold
They found another life with a new daddy to love
I tried to see them, but days passed they grew away
Give them my heart, they took the life from me

I watched their life-two months after they had gone
Followed patterns-she went running in the morning
And my plan-I'll take the fear from their eyes

Daddy is at the door
Don't be afraid
Just let me in Everything is fine

Her smile shattered-"Daddy why do you have a gun?"
Gun shot painless-I know the others will soon awake
Through the hallway-nine year old died in her bed
Master bedroom-the baby stirs in her crib
Your green eyes
Cry no more
My baby girl
Dies in my arms

You don't have to be afraid anymore

My tears drop on her bloody face
She will never have to be afraid
The cops found my body laying in bed
Eitgh-month-old baby dead in my lap

You don't have to be afraid anymore...

Visit Vehemence page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.