Iâ€™m so glad to be here tonight!

Iâ€™m glad to be in your wonderful city!

An I gotta little message for ya

That a friend of mines told me a few years back

Iâ€™m talkinâ€™ bout brother, Solomon Burke,

You all know him, donâ€™t cha?

These are the words he told me, children:

Everybody, needs somebody, everybody, needs
somebody

To love, someone to love, sugar to kiss, sweetheart to miss, now

And a I need a (you, you, you) and I need a (you, you,
you)

In the morninâ€™ baby, (you, you, you), when the sun
goes down

(You, you, you) ainâ€™t nobody eles around (you, you,
you)

AAAWWW! sometime I feel, feel a little sad inside, ah,
my baby deceived me

Iâ€™ll gotta have a love to find

And I need,(you, you, you) someone to see me through (you, you, you)

And to hold my hand (you, you, you) try to make me understand

AAYY! ow! tuh, tuh, tuh,a- talkinâ€™ bout I need ya, ha

A don't you know I need ya?

I need ya in the mornin', ow! I need ya, tuh, tuh, hey!

Come on, don't ya (I need ya) you know I need ya?
Aaw!

Let me hear you say, Yeah!, let me hear you say, Yeah!

Yeah, Yeah! Oh you know I need you (need you) Aw, yeah!

You know I need you, (need you) surely do

Hold my hand, when the sun is goin down

Let me hear ya say Yeah! Aw, yeah! Alright!

My soul is wantin you, Ow! (fades)....
