CHANT -

The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about

CHORUS -

Damn truth, Barstool confessions at The Grandview
Damn truth, Bought along a strong humble attitude
Here is the damn truth, Gotta give the damn truth
Brand new lease on life, I've gotta thank you

VERSE 1 -

First off had to get my head to the workshop
Spanner in those works and the nerves were turned off Smirnoff seduced me tryna find myself thinking i might just lose me
Lunacys through the presence of my efforts
When it hits the fan shit flicks bounces off self inflicted dan
But never quit quick to build rivers and dams
Watch the mirror split thinking i could miss my chance Looked back at the cracked glass never saw a rap star
Pay for my mistakes but im a take the cab charge My backyard is filled with growth plus a whole lot of green
Now lets kill it slow.

CHORUS -

Damn truth, Barstool confessions at The Grandview
Damn truth, Bought along a strong humble attitude
Here is the damn truth, Gotta give the damn truth
Brand new lease on life, I've gotta thank you

Damn truth, Barstool confessions at The Grandview
Damn truth, Bought along a strong humble attitude
Here is the damn truth, Gotta give the damn truth

VERSE 2 -

And we wont stop yet

Cause we aint got where we're headed ya get ya fucking skeptic
A simple concept
To kill the wrong bet then resurrect the truth that festers
Ya mouldy cheese got a stench and swollen feet
From walking a fine line of lies ya talk is cheap
So media reports are free but more importantly Does it support your beliefs ?
Im just an ordinary man tryin to scan behind the news Iris finds this contact slightly askew we're fighting the flu
While they're fighting to move show me a sign and provide me the proof
Now not whats televised live to our youth and you should be obliged To supply the whole view
Cancelling the smoke and mirrors
Ive got a big nose to poke in the business of ya chosen images

CHORUS -

Damn truth, Barstool confessions at The Grandview
Damn truth, Bought along a strong humble attitude
Here is the damn truth, Gotta give the damn truth
Brand new lease on life, I've gotta thank you

CHANT -

The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about
The truth aint nothing to brag about
