Because I'm young and foolish at heart

I search the way to the stomach

To nutcrack the undigested thoughts

Mad dogs bite.

Out of love

for the unborn adored, baby

Because I'm young and foolish at heart

My head stands in my senses' light

I start eclipsing my lovers too soon

Mad dogs bay at the moon

Out of love

for the unborn adored, baby

Bring me, bring me hollow words to fill the holes in my pockets

run on dry

Because I'm young and foolish at heart

I won't leave to chance second chances by trashing the muses before they arrive

Mad dogs sleep with open eyes

Out of love

For the unorn adored, baby

Bring me, bring me hollow words to fill

the holes in my pockets

run on dry

Bring me hollow hollow

Hollow words to fill the holes in the palm of my hands

Run on dry

Because I'm young and foolish at heart

I try to crash through the wall of sound

By breaking my voice on physical love

Mad dogs sing out above

To shut up

All the unborn and adored babies

I gave birth to a dog

Baby
