

Veil Of Sorrow "Disconnected"

Visit "Disconnected" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm astray somehow
Lose myself to an inner pain
The chaos fed waves of sanity
Slam the door shut again
Can you really see me
As I slowly pass on by
Do you think you hear me
Spoken words I don't recall

The distant ways of life...

Drawing closer to the grief inside
I plunge deeper every day
All I wish for peace of mind

The reason why I cannot stay
Leaving it all behind

I've tried to find a way
Disperse the shadows in my mind
And All these times I did fail
Too blind to see it now
Cold fingers around my neck
So tight I grasp for air
To escape the sleepless nights
There's a price to pay
