i aim to bug you on your vacancy never complicate but you talk it cheap you sense but you don't know too lame to catch a cold slowly the signs will read you dumb surely the times will feel you numb i know the pains you took to show me and i'm nothing but your superbug for asking i hate to bug you on your certainty never compromise - you're just always weak you care but you don't show too proud to catch the flow under all the truth and facts there's faith enough if you can't live on love alone it isn't love
i know the depths you sunk to show me i want the life the world still owes me
answer - stamp me out and i'd love to break your fall but no-ones asking me

you said it hurts your head to know me
