"Ten To Twenty"

Visit "Ten To Twenty" on MotoLyrics.com different ways of counting fingers running through your hair

ten to twenty lifelines if you doubt how this compares there's fear enough to share a fear of loathing so easy how you bare the trace of me without you there so fall like the snow too much too slow so fragile to say hanging over everyday a breeze with contempt to shame the others a story's so thin to cater all your lovers count me out your standards shadow trade in competence

ten to twenty answers shouting down on confidence too easy not to share too vain for secret there's fear enough in there a taste of need in someones cure
