all alone in the basement painting pictures gilded stars still my colors on the floor, they quiet down want you to go but i want you know that there's no one to blame and we both look the same like the stars
like all the gilded stars diving through darkest water you shine your light above wading through deepest nighttime i've decided to go out walking under rainclouds apprehension on my mind bring noise back many times i want you to go but i want you to know there's no one to blame we both look the same
like the stars
all the gilded stars (x4) all the gilded stars come out tonight (x3)
