Your smile has been so good to me, you made my blues disappear...

You helped pull me through the darkest hours with truth and love.

So live your life in bliss, and take this tender kiss for your flower,

My inspiration now is what you gave to me every hour.

CHORUS

Carry on, the past has gone and paid for Solo on, through the door you're made for

LOve flows on, through the gates of heaven

We are one, by the light of seven

The saints and the saviours have all talked about

The cause of our downfall and how to get out

The yogis and mystics on spiritual planes,

The gurus and devas they all say the same.

Spiritual flame...keep it burning.

In faith we'll journey on, love's promise gets it on. Oh yea

and everyone will be sparks of the family of love.

Somewhere beyond the sun, the Lord has turned me on and on,

He said, "Be not afraid, the summer's gonna come one of these days..."

CHORUS

A new thing is happening on this planet now,

We're hearing the Buddha, the Christ and the Tao

The mystery of music is mystery no more

It powers the starships...the colours of awe...

It powers us all, and that's all...
